Want-to-Sees What our critic is most eager for this fall.

6 A Voyage of Growth and Discovery SculptureCenter; Sept. 13–Nov. 30. Teaming up for this filmic-sculptural installation are West Coast art star Mike Kelley and local art hero Michael Smith. We'll see the intrepid journey of Smith's longtime alter ego Baby IKKI—for which role he dresses in a diaper and a bonnet and goes out walking. Should be raving fun.
