15. “ektor garcia: cadena perpetua” at SculptureCenter

In his first New York solo show, ektor garcia presents a series of mixed-media sculptures made of interlocking parts—leather loops, clay fired into chain links, copper wire crocheted into lace, and bits of steel welded together. His practice draws on the traditional handcraft of rural Tabasco in Zacatecas, Mexico.

Location: SculptureCenter, 44-19 Purves Street, Long Island City, Queens

Price: $10 suggested donation during regular hours, opening reception is free

Time: Opening reception, 6 p.m.–8 p.m.; Thursday–Monday, 11 a.m.–6 p.m.
