LUCKY DRAW 2010

SCULPTURECENTER SPRING BENEFIT

New York – On April 13, 2010, SculptureCenter celebrates its ninth annual Lucky Draw, where every ticket holder is a winner! Lucky Draw is a spirited art raffle that guarantees all ticket holders a work of art. Approximately 170 artists donate art works. All proceeds directly benefit SculptureCenter exhibitions and programming.

The order in which the artworks are selected is determined by a lively and suspenseful random drawing, led by Master of Ceremonies, Lowell Pettit. Lucky Draw is for young and seasoned collectors alike, creating an opportunity for ticket buyers to take home artwork by emerging and established artists for a fraction of the price.

This year, we're excited to announce an impressive and expansive list of contributing artists. 2010's raffle offers the work of established artists such as Vito Acconci, Louise Bourgeois, Wade Guyton, and Richard Serra. In addition to these veterans of the art world, we are proud to include recent SculptureCenter exhibitors and Whitney Biennial participants Rachel Harrison, Patrick Hill, Corey McCorkle, Alex Hubbard, Lisa Sigal and Marianne Vitale. An online preview of all available artworks will be unveiled starting April 1, 2010 on SculptureCenter's website. On-site public previews of the artwork begin April 10.

The preview begins at 6:00 PM. Ticket holders enjoy cocktails and hors d'ouvres while perusing the art and planning their strategies. At 7:30 PM, art advisor and SculptureCenter's New Art Network chair, Lowell Pettit will begin the raffle. The first three picks will be sold in a live auction. After the auction, the fun begins!

The purchase of one Raffle Ticket guarantees the ticket holder one work of art. Raffle Tickets are $450 each, or three for $1200. This year, SculptureCenter is offering Cocktail Tickets for $50 each (for those who would like to attend but not participate in the raffle). Tickets are available online at www.sculpture-center.org.
