What:

The Third Annual LIC Block Party, featuring art and entertainment for all ages, presented by SculptureCenter and the Purves Street Block Association. Still in formation, the program will include a performance by Pill as well as an installation and performance in SculptureCenter's lower level galleries by Eli Keszler. Activities will include body art by Aidan Koch, games by Aria McManus & Raine Trainor, nail art by Vanity Projects, and a dyeing workshop by Shabd, as well programming by Amanda Jasnowski, Lucy Hunter & R. Lyon, LAZY MOM, and Lele Saveri, among others. An Artists' Market showcasing affordable and functional art and objects will include Desert Island Books, Ryan Foerster, Leigh Forsstrom, Hand Job Gallery, Nathaniel de Large, Mixed Media, Sophy Naess, and Peradam, among others. Food will be offered by local restaurants.

Info:

Founded by artists in 1928, SculptureCenter is a not-for-profit arts institution in Long Island City, NY dedicated to experimental and innovative developments in contemporary sculpture. SculptureCenter commissions new works and presents exhibitions by emerging and established, national and international artists. Our programs identify new talent, explore the conceptual, aesthetic and material concerns of contemporary sculpture, and encourage independent vision.

Audience:

The LIC Block Party is open to all and is presented free of charge.

When:

Saturday, August 22, 2015, noon-5pm.

Where:

Purves Street, Long Island City, at the intersection of 43rd & Jackson Aves.
