10 Artists to Watch This May

By Artspace Editors - April 30, 2015

MAGALI REUS

SculptureCenter, May 3 - July 5

The Dutch artist Magali Reus makes strange, difficult, and fascinating sculptures, interrupting an aesthetic of corporate neutrality with seemingly incidental bits of plastic products that grow to become central actors in her compositions. Her latest body of work, commissioned by and on view at SculptureCenter, takes surreal liberties with the common forms of the lock and the street curb.
