Laura Schnitger:
Two Masters and Her Vile Perfume

➡ Lara Schnitger: Two Masters and Her Vile Perfume

Mondays, Thursdays-Sundays. Continues through Nov. 29

718-361-1750

ART

There's nothing soft about Schnitger's often hypersexual or grim sculptural contraptions made of various textiles draped over wooden frames—except the materials, obvs. Here she continues to mix human figures with architectural installations, stretching what feels like a Gothic church or medieval market across the main SculptureCenter space, and populating it with her quasi-futurist fabric figures.
